MARY POPPINS: THE BROADWAY MUSICAL

One of the most popular Disney movies of all time is capturing hearts in a whole new way: as a practically perfect musical! Based on the books by P.L. Travers and the classic Walt Disney film, Cameron Mackintosh and Disney's Mary Poppins delighted Broadway audiences for over 2,500 performances and received nominations for nine Olivier and seven Tony Awards, including Best Musical.

The jack-of-all trades, Bert, introduces us to England in 1910 and the troubled Banks family. Young Jane and Michael have sent many a nanny packing before Mary Poppins arrives on their doorstep. Using a combination of magic and common sense, she must teach the family members how to value each other again. Mary Poppins takes the children on many magical and memorable adventures, but Jane and Michael aren't the only ones upon whom she has a profound effect. Even grown-ups can learn a lesson or two from the nanny who advises that "Anything can happen if you let it."

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Pulling Mary Poppins together was nothing short of an amazing experience. I was gifted this year with a staff of women who are passionate about the theatre and Allegro. What a powerful combination! And the result of that is Mary Poppins.

Allegro represents a beautiful fusion of theatre, music, and dance, embodying everything we teach. It serves as a vibrant centerpiece, providing outsiders a glimpse into our world, and allowing us to share our artistic vision with the community.

Mary Poppins has been one of my favorite stories for so long. To this day, when I watch the original movie, I cry when Mary leaves. The music. The dance. The animation. What's not to love! When we started discussing the fall show and Poppins was suggested, I jumped at the chance. We knew going in the script would push all of us beyond what we've done in the past, but we were all excited to step up to the challenge.

And our cast. These folks have been such a joy to work with! The depth of talent represented within these 30 people is extraordinary. When I started getting little video snippets of choreography and music rehearsals, I was giddy. The cast and staff have worked so hard to bring Mary Poppins to life. We can't wait to share it with you!
